Unless the Russians Fall Back to Their Second Line a Battle Can Not be Very Long Delayed.

Che Foo, April 9.-The Japanese are reported to have landed on the Manchurian side of the Yalu river just above the mouth, but below Antung. They have also landed near Takushan, half way between the mouth of the Yalu and Port Arthur.

This is the second important step of the war-in effect, the crossing of the Rubicon-for it puts the Japanese definitely on the offensive, and marks the first invasion of Manchuria. The Russians were intrenched at An-tung, and probably still hold that posttion, but the movement of the Japanese will have the effect of turning the flank of Antung and may render the Russian position untenable. If the Russians attempt to hold their Appointments Made at the Eighty-Sixth Session of the Missouri Conference at Moberly.

Moberly, Mo., April 4.-The eighty sixth session of the Missouri annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church was held here, Bishop Walden presiding.

Chillicothe and Unionville offered to entertain the next annual conference. Chillicothe was selected.

Dr. J. T. Bentley represented the Ensworth deaconess home of St. Joseph. He reported 665 patients treated during the year.

In its memorial to the general conference the article in discipline on dancing, theaters and other amusoments was allowed to stand. The conference refused to recommend the restoration of the five-year limit of appointments.

The committee to the general conference recommended that a committee of 15 from the M. E. church and 15 from the M. E. Church, south, should decide if either should abandon certain fields of work where only one M. E. church was deemed by them neces-

"Annabel!" called a Manchester mother over the banisters, as she heard the front door close.

"Yes, mamma," replied a sweet, girlish voice, and Annabel Googan slowly framed herself in the darkness of the staircase, relates London Tit-Bits.

"Was that Mr. Tinberry, Annabel?"

"It was, mamma."

"Do you know it is 20 minutes past 11?" came in cold tones from the wrappered figure in the upper hall.

"Manma, we hadn't the slightest idea it was so late," said the young girl, earnestly. "You see," she continued, "Mr. Tinberry has been telling me about China and Japan. He said everybody ought to know about them, and it was so interesting, we never thought how late it was getting. Do you know, mamma," added the sweet girl, as she reached the landing, "that in China they—"

"Did Mr. Tinberry draw a map of China on your face, Annabel?" asked Mrs. Googan, sternly.

"Why, mamma?" asked the girl in startled tones.

The young girl rushed to a mirror and saw with horror-stricken glance that the left side of her face was streaked and stained with ink.

"Heaven and carth!" she screamed; "his fountain pen must have leaked into his waistcoat pocket!" and with a shriek of horror the beautiful girl fell fainting to the floor.

wonderful blood remedy, which has cured, to stay cured, more old deep-seated, obstinate cases of rheumatism than all other remedies, doctors, hot springs or liniments combined. Botanic Blood Balm kills the uric acid poison in the blood, in its place giving pure red, nourishing blood, sending a rich, tingling flood of warm blood direct to the paralyzed nerves, bones and joints, giving warmth and strength just where it is needed, and in this way making a perfect cure. B.B.B. has cured hundreds of cases where the joints had been swollen so long they were almost brittle and perfectiy rigid and stiff, yet B.B. unlimbered the joints, straightened out the bent back and made a perfect, lasting cure after all other remedies had failed.
